

Slightly Broke Your Heart

Written by: Vaporeon Lugia Krabby

Only	love
Is this	determined
Loathing this	persistent
To beat upon a point that	if I ever held you
Surely once would be the last	So I hate
Out of fear	the pain
That your tears	would turn to grief
And that grief	my undoing
As it hurts so deeply	to love
For now I want you to believe	in one thing
Of the simplest excuses	I could make
To believe that this love	is not real
So that one day you will turn to me
With the most sincerest gratitude
And thank me since I only
Slightly broke your Pretty little
Heart
